

BARRICK Corporate Heart of Gold Fund Policy

Barrick is committed to actively supporting the communities in which it operates, not only at the regional and local levels, but also at the corporate level. In Canada, Barrick supports non-profit organizations and other charitable endeavours with mandates that contribute to the economic and social development, consistent with our identified focal areas and which are broadly aligned with our overall long-term business activities.

Barrick corporate funding policy reflects our commitment to corporate social responsibility, with a specific focus on the following identified key focal areas:

EDUCATION

- Post-secondary, universities, colleges, training and educational programs in support of youth or continuing education, and particularly those which develop skills and expertise relevant to the mining industry
- Education and research in the areas of mining and related fields and disciplines
- Specific capital projects & campaigns for enhancement of program delivery

HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENT

- Population health, primary community care, acute care, children's health, diagnostics of benefit to Barrick employees, their families and the communities in which they live and work
- Capital projects & campaigns for enhancement of program delivery

CULTURE AND RECREATION

- Sponsorships, cultural events, sporting events and activities, and the arts, which contribute to quality of life in the communities where Barrick operates and where our employees live and work
- Cultural institutions and organizations, in support of enhanced public access, information, and enjoyment

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

- Entrepreneurship, innovation, regional and community economic development, aboriginal communities economic development and micro-enterprise development
- Enhancing economic and social development, and the entrepreneurial capacity of Barrick's host communities, or contributing to the long-term development of Barrick's supply chain and markets

COMMUNITY CAPACITY BUILDING AND LEADERSHIP

- Leadership development, community initiatives, youth development
- Contributing to the social and economic development of Barrick's host communities, and the caliber of future leadership in our industry and our communities
